HENRY C. JOHNSON,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
JOHN P. PENNEY,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The twenty-fifth day of March, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

A. G. CURTIN.

A PROPHECY.—In the course of his recent speech against the policy of the Administration, Mr. Eden, of Illinois, made a political prophecy which is worth reproducing. It is this:

"Should this Administration be continued in power for another term, the war will go on until the financial schemes of Secretary Chase shall crumble into ruin, when it will of necessity cease, leaving in its desolating course a divided country and a ruined people. On the other hand, should the Democracy succeed in the next Presidential election, the Union will be restored under the Constitution in less than six months after its accession to power, as I believe without the necessity of shedding a single drop of blood."

SENSIBLE.—A soldier recently returned to neighboring village, after an absence of two years, and found his wife living whith another man, to whom she had been married some months, representing to him that she had never been married before, and to those who knew her that her husband was dead. The first and second husbands calmly talked the matter over, and then left the false one to inveigle another husband if she could. That was decidedly more sensible than shooting at each other with pistols.

Speech of the Hon. Thos, H. Seymour.

The Hon. Thos. H. Seymour, of Connecticut, made the following speech at Hartford, on the night of the late election. The report which we copy from the Times.

FELLOW-CITIZENS: I congratulate you on this fine gathering of the Democracy of Hartford. It is dark and dreary without; it is cheerful within. I congratulate you on the victory you have achieved in the town election. It is a victory on principles; and it is destined to bear fruit. It is owing to two causes. It is due first, to the unity if counsels in your ranks and to your excellent organization, which you will do well to keep up; and it is owing, secondly, to another thing—to a change which is going on in the public mind, and which is here represented by sterling and patriotic men. All the indications are that there is a growing conviction in the minds and hearts of the people of America, that if the country is to be saved, it is to be saved by the Democracy. (Applause.) The people look at the history of your party—they see how the Democracy have carried the country along in peace, to an unexampled height of prosperity and power; and again they desire to commit to their hands the destinies of the American people. [Aplause.] What has brought you here? It is precisely that spirit which prompted your oath as freemen, when you took upon yourselves the sworn obligation support the Constitution. Herein you pledged yourselves to support the rights of the States, and of individuals, and whatever of liberty and free institutions came down from the Revolutionary fathers. And that cause is imperiled to day by the men in power, to whom, unfortunately, are committed the reins of government; and knowing this, on the day of election you went forward and acquitted yourselves like men and patriots.

Yes, my friends, it is imperiled by our rulers. This is the first time in the history of this country when we have been compelled to speak of those who were elected to be the servants of the people as rulers.—But the iron hand that is stretched abroad so oppressively upon the people—the shackles that are put upon free speech and the press, as well as upon the hands of the citizens—the utter insecurity of the American people, since the great writ of liberty, the habeas corpus, was struck down, all these things force upon us the melancholy truth that kingly words, and kingly words alone, can express the act when we speak of the men in power.

I do not propose to go into the origin of the fearful struggle; neither am I going to ask you to oppose the war. It is in the hands of men whom we cannot control. I suppose they will live out their political term, and it is to be hoped that in the mercy of God the country will not again be subjected to their rule. But I ask your attention to the fact that this struggle is in the nature of a civil war. Disguise it as we may, this truth can not be concealed. It was begun with the declaration that it was simply and only a war, for the Constitution and the Union of our Fathers. But now we see leading Republicans openly declaring that they are opposed to the Union as it was. They tell us that we never can have the Union again. It is declared unblushingly to be "an Abolition war." And the course of the Government toward the seceded States is clearly destructive to the Union. It is a civil war. It is brother against brother wherever a gun is discharged, or a sword drawn. And the only difference, between it and the civil wars of the Middle Ages is, that it has not yet become general. It is not, as yet, general because of the wonderful forbearance of the American people—who, when the bayonet has been presented to their breasts, have preferred to wait for the power of the ballot; that power which was illustrated yesterday in so marked a manner in Hartford. (Applause.)

When a corrupt Congress, subservient to the Edict of the President, passed the Conscription act, and became something barbarous. We all know the nature of a civil war a war of carnage, which should be hateful to the American people. And yet we have a "war party" who look upon this with indifference. Bloodshed seems to be popular in our country! I am not speaking of bloodshed in the shock of battle, but of the indifference of the people to the horrible nature and reality of things now going on. "Thou shalt not kill," once had a weight of sacred authority with our countrymen; but the solemn charge now falls on unheeding ears. That awful command against the taking of human life, is disregarded. Look at the many military executions—cruel and unnecessary.

Here the speaker alluded to particular cases, in illustration; and also spoke of a party of soldiers who lately took a steamer's load of conscripts, from the East of Virginia, one of whom leaped overboard; and instead of leaving down a boat and picking him up, "they shot him like a dog, and let his body drift out to sea for the sharks. It seems not to have occurred to them that this wretched conscript may have had a mother, who, with breaking heart, in her humble cottage-home, might have felt a melancholy consolation in at least having the body of her son restored to her for burial in the village churchyard."

Bloodshed, I say, is popular! What has become of the "panting fugitive" of the Anti-Slavery Agitation days? We hear nothing of him now. He seems to have taken refuge under the broken arches of the Constitution; while white men are hunted down.

The character of the war has changed.—If it was for the Union once, it is so no longer.—We are plainly told that it is for the conquest of the South. I wish to speak to you not as a politician, but as a friend of our country.—(Applause.) Now, let me tell you, gentlemen, (and let me request, that you remember what I say,) the conquest of the South involves the destruction of liberties of the North and of the West! That is what it involves. A fact or two will prove it.

It involves the necessity of military occupation, and military occupation involves the necessity of a vast army, a standing army; and we learned not long ago, from our Revolutionary Fathers, that a standing army is the bane of a republic. The South would be held as Hungary is held to-day by Austria; and the people of the North would be called upon for taxes to support this state of things. Nor is that all. You have got the military power over you now. It is holding the people by the throat. You have got a conscription, which is always connected with a great military establishment; but says some Republican friend, this is only temporary; it will pass away with the end of the rebellion, and cease. Never, my friends, never! If you have conscription now, you will have conscription forever, unless the American people by the ballot, or in some way, forbid it.

The republican war programme, unless it is changed, will certainly overthrow all that is solid and valuable in our institutions. Therefore, I say, the Democracy may demand that the Government shall not carry out such a programme that brings results so disastrous to the American people.

We have seen dark days during the last three years; dark for our country and its hopes. But the tide is beginning to turn. The session of the Legislature just closed is evidence of this—where free speech in defence of constitutional principles was quietly heard from your able representative, Mr. Faton, in spite of coercion and bayonets. It shows that the people are determined, if everything is to be wrecked, that they will at least save their liberty out of that wreck, and build something more solid and enduring than they have yet had. (Cheers.)

But you fear the bayonet, my friends. You look to Ohio. You think the soldiers are all Abolitionized and subservient to the commands of those who aim to establish and perpetuate a despotism. I cannot believe it! They will see that in so doing they are forging chains for their own limbs. They will see the iniquities of the men at Washington. In my mind there are thousands to-day in the Republican ranks will see this, and are ready to break away from their party connections. We shall have our recruits from them, henceforth. Ah, the men who are in revelry at Washington, while their countrymen are dying—these men, depend upon it, begin to have some forethought of the doom that awaits them. If they are holding high wassail to-night, they may see, as Belshazzar saw, the hand-writing on the wall. They are confronted with the exclamation, "Thou art the man." They hear their doom in the rustling leaf; in the shaking of the tapestry on the wall. They hear it in the rattle of the passing carriage that goes by the White House or other whited sepulchre. They see the ghost of their murdered country, like Clarence, with "his bright hair dabbled in blood," rising before them. The spirit of Liberty comes up to confront them, and they see it with fear and trembling. A down trodden nation arises before them, in all the majesty of its outraged rights, and its incorruptible heart. (Cheers.)

Paying Dear for the Whistle.

The war between the North and the South has now been waged for three years. We have called into the service 1,775,000 soldiers. We have now in the field say 500,000 men. There have been discharged on account of wounds, disability and sickness, together with the desertions, say 375,000. This leaves 900,000 men now dead and buried. This is a liberal calculation in our favor, for if we could reach the exact loss in our army the total of deaths would not fall short of a million of lives. We have stolen and freed from the rebels from 75,000 to 100,000 negroes; admit it to be 100,000. This war, from the beginning, has been a war for the liberation of Southern slaves from their owners, in the intent of the instigators, though it has only been publicly avowed for the last two years. To say nothing of the injury, loss and cruelty to nineteen-twentieths of the poor slaves, to say nothing of the destruction, loss of property, demoralization of our population, the untold miseries of the wounded and broken down constitutions of the discharged soldiers, to say nothing of all this loss to the body politic, it has cost the United States in debt, entailed upon future generations, already 3,000,000,000. To sum up the gross amount, we have, in order to liberate 100,000 slaves, and make them worse off than they were while with their masters, created a debt of $3,000,000,000, and sacrificed the lives of 900,000 of our fellow citizens! Is not this, in the language of the immortal Ben. Franklin, "PAYING DEAR FOR OUR WHISTLE."—Patriot & Union.

A German statistician has recently shown that the invention of the sewing machine enables one woman to make one hundred times as many garments as she could have made a century ago. To which a cynic replies that the average gain to mankind is nothing at all, since one woman now wears one hundred times as many garments as she would have worn a hundred years ago. Our first mother was content with a fig leaf which, according to the Talmud, measured about three inches, by six: the fig leaf of a fashionable lady to-day measures about fifteen yards in circumference. Between these extremes a contemporary thinks there must be a mean which would make the sewing machine a really profitable invention.

☞As proof of the fact that girls are useful articles, and that the world could not very well get along without them, a late writer states it as a fact that if all the girls were driven out of the world, in one generation, the boys would all go out after them.

☞At a concert, recently; at the conclusion of the well known song; "There's a Good Time Coming," a farmer got up and exclaimed: "Mister, you couldn't fix the date, could you."

☞It is proposed in New York to introduce into the churches "invalid pews" and "sleeping pews."

What They Promised.

THE FRIENDS OF Gov. CURTIN PROMISED THE PEOPLE THAT IF THEY WOULD RE-ELECT HIM, THE WAR WOULD END IN 30 DAYS AND THERE WOULD BE NO MORE DRAFTING. HOLD THEM TO THEIR PROMISES.

Administration Outrages.

We frequently hear the opinion expressed that the people are very different in regard to all the outrages on personal rights perpetrated by this administration—that they are more so in fact than even the people of France or England would be under like circumstances. This seems to be the case. Why is it so? Is it because they are really in favor of the usurpers and tyrants at Washington carrying on this war at any price? Is it because they really have no sympathy with those who stand up for their ancient rights under the constitution or because they fear the mailed hand of Federal power? Is it because of their hope in the ballot box? Or is it because they have lost all virtue, and sunk into utter degradation? These questions may suggest some of the reasons; but without claiming that our assertions or arguments are infallible, we venture another reason still.

This country, (the north alone,) is larger in extent of territory, in proportion to its population, than either England, France, Austria, Prussia, or, perhaps, any other European Government, except Russia. We believe that large countries like large cities shelter criminals more effectually than smaller ones, for the simple reason that whatever the crime or outrage may be, if it does not come under the immediate observation of the multitude, it does not excite their indignation to such a pitch as it would did they see, with their own eyes, the actual outrages committed. This being the case, great crimes often go unpunished, because popular sentiment does not demand the execution of the laws: and the laws become a dead letter in consequence. If the entire population of the north had been crowded into a space the size of Pennsylvania and New York; and all the outrages of this administration had been committed upon them that have been perpetrated in the various states since this rebellion, there would have been an uprising of the people in their own defence long ago. This goes to show that a large territory, thinly populated, is much more easily led into despotism than smaller ones thickly populated. As a proof of this let us refer to the histories of Ireland, Italy, Poland and Hungary, whose struggles for liberty we have so recently seen. It is true they were finally overcome—but never conquered. They still rise again and again.

But there are yet stronger proofs than those already advanced.—The oldest republics of either ancient or modern times were those smallest in extent of territory, in proportion to their population. Let us instance Athens and Sparta in ancient times; and the Swiss Cantons, and the apparently insignificant Republic of Andorra on the confines of Spain and Portugal. On the other hand the most despotic governments on the face of the earth, are those of the largest extent of territory for the simple reason that difference in the interests of localities made the weaker submit to the more powerful sections, under the same government. The greatest Despotism in Asia to-day is China, the greatest in Europe is Russia and under the policy of the present administration it is not hard to see which will be greatest on this continent—if it is not so already. We assert then that the American people do not submit tamely to these usurpations for the reasons most commonly given alone.

Suppose that our own little mountain county was peopled with four times its present number, and that our most prominent and most patriotic men were taken away by force in such a manner as thousands have been from other places by Lincoln's minions. Would she not rise small as she is in extent and with mountain riflemen assert the rights for which Tell fought among the mountains of Switzerland where those principles still live, while they lie buried here now in the tomb of Washington? No. The people of America are not more different than those of other countries where they see the actual occurrence of atrocities. But, unfortunately, there are too few who see and too many who only hear and do not believe. The time will come yet when this administration, presuming too far, will spring a mine beneath their feet that will swallow them up.

We would call the attention of our readers to the new Clothing Establishment of G. Berkstresser and Son, in Schellsburg, who are now offering for sale a fine assortment of ready made clothing; these gentlemen will, we have no doubt, gain a reputation in their new calling. We take pleasure in recommending them to the notice of our friends and readers.

No. 9.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, HARRISBURG, April 4th, 1864.

DEAR GAZETTE:

There is as yet no disposition on the part of the majority in either branch of the Legislature, to fix the day of final adjournment. Several propositions looking to this end, have come from the Denocrats of the House, but the majority refused to entertain them. The reason for the refusal of the "Republican" members to fix the day of adjournment, can be found in the fact that the Committee of Ways and Means have not yet reported the General Appropriation Bill, nor have the committee on the apportionment of the State, as yet reported their bill. These two measures are very important and concern the "Republican" members particularly, inasmuch as Gov. Curtin looks to the Appropriation Bill for the "sinews of war," and their party politicians look the Apportionment Bill for a "gerrymander" which shall legislate Democrats out of, and themselves into, office. There is also another very important matter to be considered by the Legislature, viz: the question of a law regulating the manner of voting in the army. It is questionable whether the Legislature have the constitutional power to pass such a law, prior to the ratification of the proposed amendments to the constitution, by the people. Until the amendments to the Constitution which propose to give soldiers the right to vote, become a part of the Constitution, it mill be, in my opinion, entirely useless to pass laws regulating elections in the army. Mr. Lee, of Philadelphia, a man of prudence and good common sense, to day introduced a resolution requesting the opinion of the Attorney General upon this subject. The resolution was unanimously adopted.

A bill has passed the House, to enable the Bedford Railroad Company to issue preferred stock to an amount not exceeding two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, such stock to be entitled to a dividend of seven per centum out of the earnings of the road before any dividend is paid out of the other stock issued by the company. It is to be hoped that the passage of this bill, will enable the company to finish their road to Bedford. I send you a copy of the bill which please lay before the readers of the Gazette, at an early day. More anon.

ABSENT—Our Assistant Editor has been absent for the past two weeks without leave from our devil who is wondering what's the use of an editor if the machine can be run without one. Patrons will please make allowance for any errors that may appear in the present issue for the above reason.

Sanitary Fair.

We learn that the Executive Committee of the great Sanitary Fair to be held in Philadelphia in June next, has appointed our townsman, Dr. C. N. HICKOK, Chairman of the Committee of arrangement for this county. The committee of arrangement for each county is to consist of ten persons, and this committee is to appoint a sub-committee of five persons in each township and borough, so that the people of every neighborhood in the state will have an opportunity to aid this humane enterprise for the relief of our sick soldiers. Dr. Hickok is well known for his zeal and energy in the cause of the Sanitary Commission, and the interest of this enterprise could not have fallen into better hands. He has appointed the following excellent committee for this county:

Mrs. J. S. Schell, Schellsburg,
Mrs. James Barndollar, Bloody Run,
Mrs. John Cessna, Bedford,
Miss Amy Durram, St. Clair,
Miss Maggie Barndollar, Woodberry Middle,
Hon. J. B. Noble, Woodberry South,
Col. F. D. Beegle, St. Clairsville,
Rev. F. Benedict, Bedford,
J. H. Schell, Esq., Schellsburg,
Jacob B. Williams, Esq., Bloody Run.

The time for the meeting of the committee will be announced next week.

School Directors' Convention.

In pursuance of the notice published by the State Superintendent of schools, requesting the school Directors of Bedford County to meet in convention and consider the propriety of increasing the salary of the County Superintendent, thirty-eight Directors answered to their names. On motion, the convention was organized by choosing Hon. John G. Hartley, President, and John P. Reed, Secretary. The object of the meeting was then stated. The convention then proceeded to business. John B. Fluke, Esq., moved that the Salary of the superintendent be increased to the sum of $800.

Mr. A. J. Kerr, Moved to amend by striking out $800, and inserting $501, Mr. Devore moved to amend the amendment by striking out $501, and inserting $1000, after some discussion a vote was taken upon the amendment to the amendment, which resulted in 31 votes in the affirmative and four in the negative. The resolution then as amended, authorising an increase of salary, making it $1000, was adopted; 31 votes in the affirmative, and 4 in the negative.

On motion, the officers of the convention were directed to certify the action of the convention to the State superintendent.

On motion adjourned.

JOHN G. HARTLEY, President
JOHN P. REED, Secr'y.,

Abolition Traitors.

The only Northern man, since the war began, known to have given valuable information to the Confederates, is Mr. Harvey, a Republican, and now Lincoln's minister to Portugal. It is also a fact that the only persons in the North known to have furnished materials of war to the Confederates, are Republicans—as Palmer, Collector Barney's Clerk, and Chairman of the New York Republican Central Committee. Lincoln promptly put him under Federal protection, to shield him from prosecution for his crimes

Bedford Railroad.

A Further Supplement to an act to incorporate the Bedford Railroad company.

SECTION 1, Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the president and directors of the Bedford Railroad company be and they are hereby authorized to increase the capital stock of said company to an amount not exceeding six hundred thousand dollars.

SECTION 2. That the said Bedford Railroad company be and it is hereby authorized to issue preferred stock to an amount not exceeding two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, which stock shall be entitled to a dividend of seven per centum out of the earning of said road, before any dividend is paid out of the other stock issued by said company.

SECTION 3. That any railroad company incorporated by any law of this Commonwealth, is hereby authorized to subscribe for the whole or any part of the stock hereby authorized to be issued.

Shortening the Blankets.

All men know the success of the sailor's attempt to lengthen his blanket by cutting strips from the bottom and sewing them on the top. The Republican party has illustrated that policy both as to slavery and finance. The men who made this United States made a system for white men. The Republican party, being wiser than the founders of the Republic, more high-toned in morality than WASHINGTON or ADAMS, and more Christain than the founders of the church, determined that an injustice to the black race must be repaired by an injustice to the slave states. It swelled and strutted, and claimed piety and philanthropy, because it sought to do charity with the money of others. It undertook to curse conviction into slaveholders, to cheat them into glory, and to glory in cheating them, and, having thus excited opposition and inflamed obstinacy, gave the slave states the option of submitting to injustice or quitting the Union. The result is, that before this war is ended, unless the Republican party is driven from power, the condition of the poor free white will be not better, so far as the physical comforts of life are concerned, than was that of the slave black at its commencement; and for the condition of the slave black we refer those who still believe in the philanthropic mission of the Republican party to the freedmen's camps on the Mississippi and at Alexandria. The blanket is not only no longer, but a little is lost by the operation of tearing and sewing.

The "blood-letting" which Senator CHANDLER was so anxious for, having begun, money was necessary. There were three ways of getting it—taxes, the honest; sales of government securities at prices to tempt capitalists, or the issue of paper money, both unconstitutional and hishonest. The last, of course, was chosen, and it became not only a forced loan, to use the expression of Mr. SPAULDING, the author of the bill, but was made, in addition a forced liquidation, by which creditors were cheated from one to thirty-five per cent.

The consequence is, that the government, out of the eight hundred millions it must spend this year, will pay, of that sum, because of the legal tender, two hundred millions of dollars. The blanket is again a little shorter for the attempted lengthening.

COST OF ABOLITION.—We have frequently seen a statement of the great weight of lead required to be fired in battle for the killing or wounding of a single man. But does anybody ever reflect that to free the negroes emancipated by this war we have expended more than double the weight of every individual estimated in hard silver money? Such is the actual fact.—The cost of the war up to the present time would amount to over sixty thousand tons of sterling silver. Average the weight of negroes, big and little, at 70 pounds, and double it in silver as the cost of each darkey's "freedom," and we find that our war expenses would pay at that rate for 960,000 "citizens of African descent."—That's the way the money goes.—Boston Courier.

☞ The following item appeared in the Philadelphia Ledger of last Wednesday:

Troops Passing through the City—Arbitrary Conduct of a Colonel.—The 56th Regiment of Massachusetts Volunteers passed through this city, on Monday night, stopping here long enough to be entertained at the Refreshment Saloon. During the stay of the regiment, some of the men, it is alleged, became intoxicated, at a tavern, on the southwest corner of Washington avenue and Otsego streets, and the Colonel ordered a file of his men to throw liquor in the street, which was done. Several demijohns were thrown out and broken, and liquor was poured out of other vessels. Not content with this illegal act, the Colonel ordered the arrest of the tavern keeper and attendant, and both were ironed and taken off with the regiment.

Thus the civil law is made subservient to the military. In Philadelphia, with its hundreds of police officers, and the civil law presumed to be in full force, a citizen is dragged from his home in irons at the whim of a New England Colonel, and a "local" item is all that is further heard of the matter. Independence Hall ought to have a shroud hung over it.

PROGRESS OF CIVILIZATION.—Mrs. Francis D. Gage, who has been laboring with the South Carolina contrabands, says that in 1862 they neither swore nor got drunk, but now they drink whiskey and swear just like white folks. Such is the progress of civilization under the Abolition dynasty.

☞ The late massacre of negro soldiers near Vicksburg is now said not to have been a rebel outrage, but quite otherwise. The negroes went to a hotel where there were only white women and children with their servants, committed the grossest possible outrages on the women, and then burnt the house. An Indiana regiment heard of the affair and attacked and killed the negroes. No rebels were concerned in the shocking affair. Admiral Porter said in a late report: "The negro troops near Vicksburg have been committing many outrages."

If things go on as they are now going, the niggers will soon get so vain and proud that they will scorn to marry Abolitionists.—Prentice.

☞"Bobby, what does your father do for a living?" "He's a philanthropist, sir." "A what?" "A philanthropist, sir. He collects money for Central Africa, and builds houses out of the proceeds."

IMPORTANT TO LADIES.—DR. HARVEY'S FEMALE PILLS have never yet failed in removing difficulties arising from obstruction, or stoppage of nature, or in restoring the system to perfect health when suffering from Spinal Affections, Prolapsus Uteri, the Whites, or other weakness of the Uterine Organs. The Pills are perfectly harmless on the constitution, and may be taken by the most delicate female without causing distress—the same time they act like a charm by strengthening, invigorating and restoring the system to a healthy condition, and by bringing on the monthly period with regularity, no matter from what causes the obstruction may arise. They should, however, NOT be taken during the first three or four months of pregnancy, though safe at any other time, as miscarriage would be the result.

☞READ WHO SAYS SO.☜

From the Rev. Levi G. Beck, Pastor of the Baptist Church, Pemberton, N. J., formerly of the North Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

I have known Hoofland's German Bitters favorably for a number of years. I have used them in my own family, and have been so pleased with their effects that I was induced to recommend them to many others, and know that they have operated in a strikingly beneficial manner. I take pleasure in thus publicly proclaiming this fact, and calling the attention of those afflicted with the diseases for which they are recommended, to these Bitters, knowing from experience that my recommendation will be sustained. I do this more cheerfully as Hoofland's Bitters is intended to benefit the afflicted, and is "not a rum drink." Yours truly,

LEVI G. BECK.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge, and Christian Chronicle, Philadelphia.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend, Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these bitters at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

J. NEWTON BROWN, Philad'a.

From the Rev. Jos. H. Kennard, Pastor of the 10th Baptist Church.

Dr. Jackson:—Dear Sir:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with commendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above cause.

Yours, very respectfully, J. H. KENNARD.
Eighth below Coates st., Phil'a.

From Rev. Warren Randolph, Pastor of the Baptist Church, Germantown, Penn.

Dr. C. M. Jackson:—Dear Sir:—Personal experience enables me to say that I regard the German Bitters prepared by you as a most excellent medicine. In cases of severe cold and general debility I have been greatly benefited by the use of the Bitters, and doubt not they will produce similar effects on others. Yours truly, WARREN RANDOLPH,
Germantown, Pa.

From Rev. J. H. Turner, Pastor of Hedding M. E. Church, Philadelphia.

Dr. Jackson:—Dear Sir:—Having used your German Bitters in my family frequently, I am prepared to say that it has been of great service.

Yours respectfully, J. H. TURNER,
No. 726 N. Nineteenth Street

From the Rev. J. M. Lyons, formerly Pastor of the Columbus (N. J.) and Milestown (Pa.) Baptist Churches.
New Rochelle, N. Y.

Dr. C. M. Jackson:—Dear Sir:—I feel it a pleasure thus, of my own accord, to bear testimony to the excellence of the German Bitters. Some years since being much afflicted with Dyspepsia, I used them with very beneficial results. J. M. LYONS.

From Rev. J. S. Herman, of the German Reformed Church, Kutztown, Berks co., Pa.

Dr. C. M. Jackson:—Respected Sir:—I have been troubled with Dyspepsia nearly twenty years, and have never used any medicine that did me as much good as Hoofland's Bitters. Yours, with respect,
J. S. HERMAN.

It is used by all classes of society, and the universal opinion is that it is good. This Syrup is purely Vegetable Compound. It is pleasant to take, and never does injury. CROUP.

This disease is announced by difficulty of breathing, shrill whistling or wheezing, hacking cough and threatened suffocation, &c. It mostly occurs in young children. For coughs after measles this Syrup is most excellent. Experience has proven that it is equalled by no other preparation.

The price of the remedy is such as to place it within the reach of all, the poor as well as the rich, and every person should have it.

Every person should have it in the house. It is a true and faithful friend to all who value health and wish to secure themselves against that most terrible disease, consumption. MEDICAL ASSISTANCE.

THE GREAT AMERICAN REMEDY

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF.

THE GREAT EXTERNAL AND INTERNAL REMEDY,
STOPS THE MOST EXCRUCIATING PAIN IN A FEW MINUTES,
AND
RAPIDLY CURES THE PATIENT.

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF

Proves its superiority to all other Medicines at once.
ITS FIRST INDICATION
Is to relieve the sufferer of PAIN, no matter from what cause it may originate, or where it may be seated.

If in the Head, Face, or Throat;
If in the Back, Spine, or Shoulder;
If in the Arms, Breast, or Side;
If in the Joints, Limbs, or Muscles;
If in the Nerves, Teeth, or Ears;

Or in any other part of the body, its application to the part or parts where the pain exists will afford immediate relief.

IF SEIZED WITH PAIN
In the Stomach, Bowels, or Kidneys;
In the Bladder, Spleen, or Liver;
In the Teeth, Ears, or Throat;
In the Brain or Nervous System;

One teaspoonful of RADWAY'S READY RELIEF to a wineglass of water will, in a few minutes, restore the patient to ease and comfort.

If Lame, Crippled, or Bed-ridden;
If Palsied, Scalded, or Burned;
If Bruised, Wounded, or Cut;
If Strained, Injured, or Disabled;
If Sun Stroke, or seized with Fits;
If Weak in the Spine or Back;

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF

should be applied to the part or parts afflicted. It instantly relieves the patient from pain, and quickly heals, soothes, and strengthens the disabled parts. In all cases of Bites of Rabid Dogs, Reptiles, Stings of Poisonous Insects, the application of RADWAY'S READY RELIEF to the wound will prevent inflammation and mortification.

FEVER AND AGUE.

Persons exposed to the Malaria of Ague, or if seized with Chills and Fever, will find a positive Antidote and Cure in Radway's Ready Relief. Let two teaspoonsful of the Ready Relief, in a wine-glass of water, be taken on getting out of bed in the morning, and however exposed to malaria you will escape.

WHEN SEIZED WITH
CHOLERA, or Diarrhœa, or Flux;
Dysentery, Cramps, and Spasms;
Bilious Cholic, or Gastritis;
Scarlet, Typhoid, or other Fevers;
Influenza, Coughs, or Colds;
Inflammation of the Stomach or Bowels;

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF

SHOULD BE TAKEN INTERNALLY.

One dose will stop the pain; its continued use will, in a few hours, cure the patient.

HOW IT CURES.

The secondary indication of RADWAY'S READY RELIEF is to cure the patient of the disease or malady that occasions the pain; this it accomplishes rapidly and radically. So swift is the patient transformed from pain, misery, weakness, and decrepitude, to the delightful enjoyment of health and strength, that patients frequently ascribe its talismanic power to the supernatural influence of enchantment.

RHEUMATISM, LUMBAGO, GOUT, NEURALGIA, TOOTH ACHE, CROUP, INFLUENZA, SORE THROAT, QUINZY, DIPTHERIA, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, STIFF JOINTS, ENLARGED TENDONS, HEAD ACHE, (Sick or Nervous,) ASTHMA, or HARD BREATHING.

It is truly marvellous how quick RADWAY'S READY RELIEF cures the sufferers of these maladies. The poor, crippled, and pain-tricken Rheumatic has not to wait days before a change takes place, but in a few minutes derives ease and comfort.

CHRONIC RHEUMATISM CURED.

Twenty Years of Sleepless Nights.

Wm. Sydney Myers, Esq., of Havana, Cuba, the correspondent of the London Times, suffered with Acute and Chronic Rheumatism for twenty-five years, and for twenty years he had not enjoyed one whole night's calm rest. He applied RADWAY'S READY RELIEF—it immediately gave him ease and secured him the first calm and undisturbed sleep during the twenty years. The continued use of the READY RELIEF cured him.

PREVENTION BETTER THAN CURE.
THERE IS NO OCCASION FOR SICKNESS.

When you first feel pain, then take a teaspoonful of the READY RELIEF, in water; or apply it to the parts where you feel the discomfort.

ALL MALIGNANT DISEASES
first give warning of their presence, and if met promptly before they become securely intrenched within the system, will be readily expelled.

SIGNS OF SICKNESS.
Headache, Pains in the Limbs—in the Stomach, Bowels, and Kidneys—Cold Chills, and Hot Flushes, Coated Tongue, Burning Skin, Nausea, Shivering, Dullness, Loss of Appetite, Restlessness, Giddiness, &c., &c., are premonitory symptoms of Malignant Diseases. One dose of the READY RELIEF is sufficient to break up and expel diseased action, and restore the patient to health

SOLDIERS.

Every soldier should carry with him a supply of Radway's Ready Relief. It supplies the place of all other medicines; and as a beverage, a teaspoonful of the Relief, to a wine-glass of water, is a nicer, pleasanter stimulant than brandy, whisky, or bitters.

SICKNESS PREVENTED IN THE 8TH MAINE REGT.

Eighth Maine regiment, Serg't C. P. Lord, writes that Radway's Ready Relief saved the regiment from death while quartered at Tybee Island, S. C., when working in the swamps, erecting fortifications. Every man seized with Typhoid and other Fevers, Fever and Ague, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Rheumatism, was cured by the use of the Ready Relief.

CAUTION.

In all cases ask for Radway's Ready Relief. Take no other. See that the signature of Radway & Co. is on the outside label of each bottle. Every agent is supplied with a new and fresh stock. Price 25 cents per bottle. Sold by Druggists, Merchants and country Store-keepers.

The Publishers of The Age could easily fill their columns with the unsought and most liberal commendations of the press throughout the country; but they prefer that it should stand altogether upon claims to public confidence, well known and established. They believe it has acquired this reputation by the candor, fearlessness and independence with which it has been conducted, through times of extraordinary confusion of ideas on public subjects, and latterly of almost unexampled public trial. It is now, and will be, as heretofore, the supporter of truly national principles, opposed alike to radicalism and fanaticism in every form, and devoted to the main tenance of good government, law and order.

The Publishers of the Age conceive that it thus renders peculiar services and has peculiar claims upon all men by whom its principles are valued, and who, by the proper means, look to promote and secure the Constitutional restoration of the Union. These can best show their sense of the untiring efforts of the publisher, in behalf of this great and unparalleled cause, by earnestly sustaining this paper in all its business relations,
